2026 WHOLESALE CATALOGUE

YOUR PURCHASES KEEP RETAIL HEALTHY

At The Unemployed Philosophers Guild, we take industry support seriously. When you buy from us, you help us give back to the community that keeps our world creative, curious, and connected. We're proud to support these amazing organizations:

Heart on Main Street – Empowering independent retailers through grants, education, and resources that help Main Street businesses thrive.

Museum Store Association (MSA) – A community of cultural retailers who champion mission-based commerce, supporting museums and cultural non-profit retail in their vital educational work.

Book Industry Charitable Foundation (Binc) – Providing financial assistance and disaster relief to booksellers and comic shop employees in need, helping keep book culture alive.

ABOUT ~~THE~~ UNEMPLOYED PHILOSOPHERS GUILD

The Unemployed Philosophers Guild traces our origins back to 1990, when two creative and determined brothers from New York, Stephan and David, found themselves grappling with the challenges of making a living.

One night they stumbled upon a unique process that enabled them to make pins and earrings that they successfully sold on the gritty streets of Manhattan.

That initial success led to local stores expressing a keen interest in their products, and prompting requests for an expanded product line. This pivotal moment marked the beginning of our journey from selling on the streets to our present day “Ivory Tower.”

As demand for their distinctive creations grew, the proceeds funded the brothers' graduate studies and also allowed them to pursue their artistic aspirations. For Stephan, it meant delving into the world of philosophy, while David became a historian and filmmaker.

In 1992, Stephan named the enterprise the Unemployed Philosophers Guild, a nod to the realization that making a livelihood as a philosopher was unlikely. “Spinoza was a lens grinder,” he would often say.

Thirty-four years after the two brothers started making pins and earrings in their mother's kitchen, the Unemployed Philosophers Guild stands proudly as a group of artists, writers, philosophers, and unconventional thinkers, forging ahead with creativity and resilience. Today, the Guild is comprised of ten creative people who bring their unique passions and energies to creating gifts for your stores!

A PORTION OF SALES BENEFIT GENDER LIBERATION MOVEMENT

MARSHA P. JOHNSON SECULAR SAINT CANDLE

American social activist, organizer, and performer Marsha P. Johnson lived a conspicuous life; she used feminine pronouns, wore flowers in her hair, and once told a judge her middle initial stood for “Pay It No Mind.” She cared for homeless child Sylvia L. Rivera. Later they formed Street Transvestite Action Revolutionaries (STAR) and opened a shelter for trans/gay people – especially at-risk youth of color. The Secular Saint Candle pays tribute to Marsha, whose energy, enlightenment, and humor elevated the world; without her, this would be a lesser place to live and let live large.

Our Traditional Mugs honor rituals established thousands of years ago when our ancestors quit drinking out of puddles.

As philosophers, we're all about tradition. We're also about beauty, wisdom, love, justice, being, Being, apophasis, paralipsis, paralepsism... where was I?

As you can see, all of our mugs are big ideas with a handle. Whether you're fascinated by mathematical formulas or miniature art histories they just might make you a morning person.

And with so many beautiful designs, our mugs will look good in front of your mug.

Every Magnetic Personality is a puppet on your finger and a magnet on your fridge or locker. Each original design captures the personality of a remarkable individual...

Do you know this woman?

On December 1, 1955, the “Matriarch of the Civil Rights Movement” was jailed for defiance of unjust laws. Principled and soft-spoken, this long-time activist risked safety, life, and livelihood protesting segregation.

Of course you do!

Rosa Parks joined countless patriots before her, such as Claudette Colvin, Aurelia E. S. Browder, Susie McDonald, and Mary Louise Smith – not to mention, a century earlier in NYC, Elizabeth Jennings Graham (with her lawyer and future U.S. President, Chester A. Arthur). Justice requires brave citizens to fight for the Land of the Free.

It's all who you know.

All Magnetic Personalities include a tag with brief bio, important dates and a thoughtful introduction to one of our original thinkers and cultural icons. Why not surround yourself with Magnetic Personalities? Get to know real characters — and people of real character.

ROSA PARKS
 February 4, 1913 - October 24, 2005

The modern civil rights movement dates to December 1, 1955, when Rosa Louise McCollie Parks, a seasoned activist and secretary for the NAACP, refused to give up her seat to a white man on a bus in Montgomery, Alabama. Her ensuing arrest led to a 385-day bus boycott that resulted in the desegregation of public transportation in the South and the rise of local preacher Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. to international prominence. Parks remained an activist to the end of her life.

"No, the only tired I was, was tired of giving in."

THE PULP TAROT

Tarot decks were 15th century playing cards – later tools for divination. Pulp magazines peaked with Depression-era longing for escapism – living on in modern forms and genres. Both Pulp and Tarot are sources of stories that stir primal responses – love and bravery, fear and happiness, suspense and surprise – to give us a chance to reimagine ourselves. The Pulp Tarot recasts the Tarot deck with characters from the history of pulp illustration. Each member of this new ensemble brings a fresh POV, unexpected insight... What thrilling sense of discovery will this unique collection bring to your narrative? #5735

THE HORROR TAROT

The Horror Tarot reimagines the traditional Tarot, with 78 unique cards set in the world of horror comics and illustration, horror movies, fan magazines, and paperbacks. Whether divination or revelation, each Tarot reading is an invitation to hours of engagement – on your own or in the company of friends. #5829

THE SCI-FI TAROT

This complete 78-card Tarot deck with Space-Age art is inspired by 70 years of futuristic illustration. Gaze in awe as robots, aliens, astronauts and bug-eyed monsters interact with the immortal imagery of the Tarot. The Sci-Fi Tarot Instruction Book guides you through the Major Arcana and all four suits of the Minor Arcana. The future has never looked so retro. #5902

BOB ROSS

If you're a fan of Bob Ross and you love The Joy of Painting – this is your bag. On one side: the 13 colors he used most (so you can load your palette the way he did!) On the other side: an encouraging quote and art from a characteristic painting (to keep you inspired!) The colorful tag features facts about Bob Ross, his favorite “wet on wet” technique, and his place in art history. This beautiful pouch is fully-lined and has an inner card pocket. It's just the place to stow your brushes! #5737

GEORGIAN FASHION

The Georgian Fashion Zipper Bag showcases styles of the era (1714-1847), with a Tricorne hat, Reticule, Square-toed shoe, Ivory brisé fan, Top hat, White chip bonnet with feather and many other wardrobe items and accessories that made women spectacular and men smashing — in no way deserving taunts of “Macaroni.” #5900

SPANISH

FRIDA KAHLO

Every creative act is a self-portrait of a sort, so carry all your supplies and inspirations in this Frida Bag and let the master artist remind you to paint your own reality. #5399

JANE AUSTEN

The Jane Austen Zipper Bag is just the place to keep all the small things you need: a bottle of ink and a pen, a stack of letters tied with a ribbon, a needle and thread. This pouch is for those who recognize that the small is not inevitably the trivial. #5324

CABLES & PORTS

Whether you grew up with a pager and a Walkman – or a Palm Pilot and a 32MB MP3 player – or your phone is all you'll ever need – the Cables & Ports Zipper Bag will help keep your tech together. #5901

PASTA

Our tasty Pasta Zipper Bag includes Pellegrino Artusi's classic 1891 recipe for Salsa di Pomodoro (Tomato Sauce). Buon appetito! Buon accessorio! #5327

MUSHROOMS

We call them “vegetables” yet they are not plants. They're carnivores yet they are not animals. Our Mushrooms Zipper Bag features 23 species of these otherworldly sci-fi fungi found on our world. Will that fungus be tasty or toxic? Healthy or hallucinogenic? Always ask a mycologist. #5835

SHAKESPEAREAN INSULTS

Be not one who may be called a leathern jerkin, crystal-button, not-pated, agate-ring... (shudder). Once thing's for certain: the Bard had a way with words. If you find yourself in a battle of wits, arm yourself! Procure a Shakespearean Insults Bag to hold your yellow stockings and hold your garters or hold your tongue. #5380

WEED

Grass. Hemp. Hay. Bud. Forage. Herb. Why all the euphemisms? We're all adults here. “Weed” is just another word for “plant” ...a righteous, righteous plant. Our 100% cotton zip-up Weed Bag honors these beautiful yet misunderstood works of nature. #5398

SECULAR SAINTS

MULTIPLES OF 6

The Unemployed Philosophers Guild has created these unscented Secular Saints Candles for our unenlightened times.

The portrait of a cultural luminary appears on the front of the votive, and there are special features beautifully rendered on the reverse.

They are guaranteed to grant your desires (“I need romantic lighting”) and aid the powerless (“I need light until the power comes back on”).

EDGAR ALLAN POE
"An immortal instinct, deep within the spirit of man, is thus, plainly, a sense of the Beautiful." This Fertile Minds planter pot in the image of Edgar Allan Poe will bring mystery and beauty to your home. It's genius. #5584

ALBERT EINSTEIN
 Albert Einstein, the later-life vegetarian, is now a smart ceramic décor accent. It's the perfect place to plant a lovely little Mammillaria elongata Cristata — you know, a brain cactus. #5534

SIGMUND FREUD
 The Sigmund Freud planter pot holds a small cactus (for when you're feeling prickly). Of course, you could always cultivate aromatic herbs if you prefer headier stuff. #5537

FRIDA KAHLO
 Don't wait for beauty. A seedling in your Fertile Minds planter pot with the image of Frida Kahlo will transform your home. #5536

LUDWIG VAN BEETHOVEN
 Want to add a dash of drama to your décor? This miniature bust of Ludwig van Beethoven will give your music room a little dun dun dun DUNNNNNNN! #5585

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE
 Wm. Shakespeare's imagination brought us "a rose by any other name" and now he can grow your kitchen herbs. (Will might suggest marjoram, thyme, rosemary, mint...) #5533

JANE AUSTEN
 This charming Jane Austen planter pot makes a cozy addition to your nightstand or a sunny windowsill. What would make the winter melt faster than growing Sweet William from seed and then transplanting to your window box? #5539

VINCENT VAN GOGH
 It's true: "great things are not done just by impulse, but are a series of small things put together." This Vincent van Gogh ceramic planter pot will add an artistic touch to your workspace or your home — perhaps in The Bedroom. #5538
