

THE UNEMPLOYED PHILOSOPHERS GUILD

2024 WHOLESALE CATALOGUE

The Unemployed Philosophers Guild traces its origins back to 1990, when two creative and determined brothers from New York, Stephan and David, found themselves grappling with the challenges of making a living.

One night they stumbled upon a unique process that enabled them to make pins and earrings that they successfully sold on the gritty streets of Manhattan.

That initial success led to local stores expressing a keen interest in their products, and prompting requests for an expanded product line. This pivotal moment marked the beginning of our journey from selling on the streets to our present day “Ivory Tower.”

As demand for their distinctive creations grew, the proceeds funded the brothers’ graduate studies and also allowed them to pursue their artistic aspirations. For Stephan, it meant delving into the world of philosophy, while David became a historian and filmmaker.

In 1992, Stephan named the enterprise the Unemployed Philosophers Guild, a nod to the realization that making a livelihood as a philosopher was unlikely. “Spinoza was a lens grinder,” he would often say.

Thirty-three years after the the two brothers started making pins and earrings in their mother’s kitchen, the Unemployed Philosophers Guild stands proudly as a group of artists, writers, philosophers, and unconventional thinkers, forging ahead with creativity and resilience. Today, the Guild is comprised of eleven creative people who bring their unique passions and energies to creating gifts for your stores!

MAGNETIC PERSONALITIES²³

Every Magnetic Personality is a puppet on your finger and a magnet on your fridge or locker. Each original design captures the personality of a remarkable individual...

Do you know this woman?

On December 1, 1955, the “Matriarch of the Civil Rights Movement” was jailed for defiance of unjust laws. Principled and soft-spoken, this long-time activist risked safety, life, and livelihood protesting segregation.

Of course you do!

Rosa Parks joined countless patriots before her, such as Claudette Colvin, Aurelia E. S. Browder, Susie McDonald, and Mary Louise Smith – not to mention, a century earlier in NYC, Elizabeth Jennings Graham (with her lawyer and future U.S. President, Chester A. Arthur). Justice requires brave citizens to fight for the Land of the Free.

It's all who you know.

All Magnetic Personalities include a tag with brief bio, important dates and a thoughtful introduction to one of our original thinkers and cultural icons. Why not surround yourself with Magnetic Personalities? Get to know real characters — and people of real character.
